PGI 217.7103-1 Content and format of master agreements.

(1) A master agreement shall contain a Executive order.	all clauses required by DFARS 217.7104(a) , statute, and
(2) The following format may be adapt	red to fit specific circumstances:
MASTER AGREEMENT FOR REPAIR A	AND ALTERATION OF VESSELS
1. This agreement is entered into this America (the "Government":) represer, a corporat (the "Contra	day of,, by the United States of nted by, the Contracting Officer, and ion organized and existing under the laws of the State of actor").
 	be incorporated, by reference or attachment, in job orders repairs, alterations, and/or additions to vessels.
affecting the rights and liabilities unde	ther party to this agreement has the right to cancel it without er any job order existing at the time of cancellation. The erms of this agreement, all work covered by any job order ne cancellation.
	ly by mutual agreement of the parties. A modification of this er in existence at the time of modification, unless the parties clauses of any job orders issued under	rties to this agreement are set forth in this agreement and the this agreement. In the event there is an inconsistency rder, the provisions of this agreement shall govern.
6. This agreement shall remain in effec	ct until cancelled by either party.
THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	A
by	(Contracting Officer)
	(Contractor)
by	(Authorized Individual)
	(Title)

Parent topic: PGI 217.7103 Master agreements and job orders.