

A-6 Preparing for the Debriefing

Because debriefings are time-sensitive, the prioritization of (and preparation for) this event(s) is critical. The extent of preparation may vary considerably with the complexity of each acquisition. This documentation (in addition to the outline, if used) will establish a “framework” to ensure the debriefing remains focused and productive.

Establish and Prepare Debriefing Documentation

- Briefing charts alone (with information taken directly from final briefing slides presented to the SSA) may be sufficient.
- A written script (which may later be provided to the offeror) may be prudent in addition to briefing charts.
- Review and be familiar with the final evaluation report for the debriefed offeror.

Practice the Debriefing

- Rehearse the order and execution of the debriefing.
- Ensure the government participants understand their roles and when to speak.
- Set rules for taking new questions and caucusing.
